Shri Prafulla Bharata, counsel for the petitioner.

When the matter came up for hearing on 11-10-2002, no one appears for the petitioner and order was however, passed to the effect that the defects pointed out by the office note dated 27-9-2002 be removed by 26-10-2002 by taking suitable steps, failing which this writ petition shall stand dismissed for non-compliance / non-prosecution. Apparently, defects as pointed out were not removed. Since defects pointed out were not removed, this writ petition should dismiss automatically and this fact was required to be recorded by the Registry in the order sheet.

In the above view of the matter, this writ petition is not required to be listed for default and the question of extending time for compliance, as prayed by the learned counsel for the petitioner, does not arise. If so advised, learned counsel may move a suitable application for restoration of the writ petition.
